

Residency in Equine Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation

The Department of Clinical Studies, New Bolton Center, University of Pennsylvania is offering a 3-year residency in Equine Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation. This clinical training program is primarily within the Sports Medicine Service at New Bolton Center with rotations through other services within the Large and Small Animal hospitals, as well as several external rotations. Our high caseload provides an excellent opportunity to become proficient in a lameness examination, imaging (radiology, ultrasound, CT, robotic-driven CT, MRI, nuclear scintigraphy), treadmill evaluation, and equine cardiology. The position requires after-hours and emergency on-call clinical duty at New Bolton Center. The resident will participate in clinical teaching of students, rounds, and seminar presentations to peer groups. With faculty guidance, the resident will also participate in a research project of their choice. This program should fulfill the supervised training requirements for admission to candidacy in the American College of Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation. The program extends three years from the starting date of July 5, 2017 and the annual starting salary is $33,000 and includes a generous benefits package. Qualifying applicants must have a VMD/DVM or equivalent degree, with a demonstrated interest in equine sports medicine. A one-year internship or at least one year of general practice or equivalent experience with equine focus is prerequisite. The application should include a letter of intent indicating the reasons for seeking admission to this program and professional career goals, current resume, transcript of university performance, and three letters of reference. Application deadline is February 20, 2017 or until position is filled. Submit application materials to: Patricia Antes, Chairman's Office, Department of Clinical Studies, New Bolton Center, 382 West Street Road, Kennett Square, PA 19348; or email antes@vet.upenn.edu. Inquiries concerning this position can be made to Dr. Elizabeth Davidson by telephone (610-925-6470) or by e-mail (ejdavid@vet.upenn.edu). The successful applicant will be required to sign a non-disclosure and non-competition agreement prior to the start of the program. Due to immigration restrictions, we can no longer accept applicants who are not citizens or permanent residents of the United States, Canada or Mexico at this time.

The University of Pennsylvania is an equal opportunity affirmative action employer; minorities / females / individuals with disabilities / veterans encouraged to apply.